ANNAPOLIS VALLEY EX GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Rule change only by Management Board approval

WE WILL BE FOLLOWING ALL PROVINCIAL PUBLIC HEALTH GUIDELINES

These General Rules apply to all companions and exhibitors and have precedence over any other rules adopted by Sub-Committees in any case where there is a conflict between rules.

1. The Management Board has the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations and determine all matters, questions or disputes in regard here to. The Management Board has the right to amend or add to these rules and regulations as their judgment may determine, from me to me. Entries are accepted subject to this rule. Management may remove exhibitors without refund for disorderly conduct.
2. The Management reserves the right to refuse any exhibitor for lack of space subject to the provision that space will be allocated in the order that entries are received. NS public Health Guidelines and Safe Sport Principles must be followed at all times.
3. All entries must be made on prescribed entry forms obtained upon application to the Exhibition Office. Livestock entries close on July 30th each year. Check the non- livestock section for relevant entry closing dates. Late entries will only be accepted upon passed by the Board of Directors
4. Entries will not be accorded precedence as to order of receipt until they are complete in all respects.
5. The Management shall have the sole right and discretion to allocate exhibits and exhibitors to whatever barn, building, stall or space is considered appropriate, notwithstanding any apparent outward designation on the building, grounds or any plan.
6. Articles exhibited other than livestock must be produced, grown or manufactured in the present year.

GROUNDS & BUILDING

7. The building and grounds will be open on Thursday August 12th prior to the Event for the reception and arrangement of exhibits, unless specified under Class Rules. Exhibitors are reminded that they enter all exhibits at their own risk.
8. The Exhibition grounds will be open to the public during the Exhibition week at mes determined by the Management and posted or adversed each year.
9. No pets allowed on the Exhibition grounds during Exhibion week except pets of exhibitors which must be confined to the trailer park.
10. All officials will be designated by proper badges or other designation. Zoning may be in place.
11. The Annapolis Valley Exhibition restricts all smoking of tobacco, cannabis, e-cigarettes, and waterpipes within 15 meters of all structures on the Exhibition Grounds.

JUDGING & PRIZES

12. No person shall be permitted to enter the judge's ring while judging is in progress, except the judges, their attendants, the officials and such exhibitors as have been called into the ring by the judge or judges.
13. No changes in classification can be made aer judging commences.
14. Any person interfering with the judges while in the discharge of their dues shall be removed from the grounds.
15. All judges shall give reasons for the placings when asked and may give reasons in any case.
16. No person shall be allowed to receive more than one prize in any one second of a non-livestock class. Accordingly, two entries may not be made in any one section or class. Special prizes may be awarded in addition.
17. Any exhibitor found to have employed any disingenuous measure by which the objects of the Exhibion have been defeated, shall not only forfeit the prize which might be awarded to his or her but, shall in future, be barred from compeon in the Exhibition.
18. Due to the necessity of proceeding with judging as rapidly as possible, all animals must be ready to enter the ring when called and all other exhibits must be prepared and available when judging begins. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in forfeit of the right to show in the relevant class.
19. Committee discretion is final word if livestock fit show
20. Special prizes require a special entry and special exhibit when the terms of the special class vary from the terms of the regular section.
- 21.. Stalls for all livestock entries shall be allowed in order or receipt of entries at the me of entry. Exhibitors may not trade stalls without obtaining the approval of Management and recording the approved trade at the Exhibition Office.

22. All registered animals are subject to being checked for registration. Registration papers and R.O.P data must be available prior to and up to the time of judging. No animals will be accepted as purebred or registered unless registration papers are available from the owner.
23. All cattle must be owned by the exhibitor at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Exhibition.
24. Entries in classes composed of more than one animal may be made up of animals shown individually.
25. Any animal showing signs of infectious disease or parasite infection will be barred from the Exhibition and removed forthwith from the grounds.
26. All livestock competing for special prizes must also be entered in at least one (1) regular exhibition class.
27. Feed and bedding for livestock is the responsibility of the exhibitor. All manure and bedding shall be cleaned up by 8:30 am each day. Stalls will be cleaned and all manure and bedding must be removed from the stall when the animal leaves the grounds or prize money will be forfeited. A minimum charge of $15.00 per stall will be assessed against exhibitors failing to abide by the rule whether or not any prize money is due.
28. Grooming and care of animals will take place in the stalls or designated area. Cross-tying of livestock in the aisles is not permitted.
29. Due to concerns for movement of traffic and safety of attendees and exhibitors at the Exhibition, the Management Board shall fix times for departure of livestock and other exhibits when classes have been completed each year. For the current year, livestock may be removed after classes.
30. Livestock trailers are not permitted to be parked inside the grounds. Exhibitors who have not been allocated stalls but wish to show their livestock will park trailers in spots allocated to them by an official.
31. The owner and handler of livestock will be responsible for the behavior and control of his or her animal. Livestock must be well-broken to halter. No dangerous uncontrolled animals will be permitted. The Manager may order any such animal off the grounds without reimbursement for any entry fee or other fees paid.
32. Trailer park admission as Livestock Exhibitor requires participation in 3 classes or more (or go as a non-exhibitor if space permits) Limited due to spacing requirement of NS government guidelines.
33. Trailers may arrive in the trailer court after 5pm Thursday before the Modified Ex. Trailer court noise curfew is 11:00 pm.
- 34. Any Trailer pumping Grey Water or Black Water on the ground in the trailer park or exhibition grounds will be removed immediately.

General Definitions

(Under the Rules of the Livestock Classifications Program)

EXHIBIT - For the purpose of the Classifications an exhibit shall be interpreted as follows: A unit of livestock qualifying for an entry into a class as specified in the classifications. Cow-calf classes in the beef sale section are considered to be one exhibit for definition purposes. All purebred registered animals, whether owned by one person or by more than one person (individually or jointly), are considered to be the production of the farm or breeding unit on which they are maintained.

EXHIBITOR - An exhibitor is any breeder or firm which presents animals or farm produce for official placing by a judge at the me specified by the fair for judging.

BREEDING UNIT - For the purposes of the Classifications a Breeding Unit is defined as follows: In classifications where the same or common interests are involved in more than one breeding operation, such operations are considered as one Breeding Unit. In all cases where there is any doubt that more than one breeding unit exists, the interpretation shall be that only one breeding unit exists.

PUREBRED - Purebred means an animal that is purebred of the breed as determined by the by-laws of an association authorized to register animals of that breed.

Beef Show Rules & Regulations

Each breed must be shown separately to be eligible for prize money.

Each breeding unit is allowed to show a maximum of 10 units. A Fair may increase this to 12 units to allow bona fide 4-H calves to be shown by 4-H members. Such additional 4-H exhibits will not be eligible to compete in the Breeders Herd and Get of Sire classes.

No restrictions on number per class, except Breeders Herd & Get of Sire.

All entries must be owned and registered in the name of the exhibitor by the closing date of entries.

Cow-calf classes are counted as one exhibit (Unit).

All animals in single classes must be registered, regardless of age.

Calves over 6 months of age in cow-calf classes must be registered.

Calves in cow-calf classes must be properly and legibly tattooed and registered if over 6 months of age.

9. Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor will be determined on the following point system: 1st-6 2nd-5 3rd-4 4th-3 5th-2 6th-1

Breeders are awarded points for Premier breeders and exhibitor for top 6 entries in the show
